Holiday to Delay Recycling & Trash Collections

No delay for Colonial Heights Trash Customers

Curbside recycling and trash collections through CVWMA will be delayed one day the week of September 3 due to the Monday, Labor Day holiday. No collections will be made on Monday; thus all collections during this week will occur on the day following the normal collection day. Friday collections will occur on Saturday.

This holiday schedule change affects curbside recyclers in Ashland, Henrico County, Goochland County (portions), and the City of Richmond (Red Week only).

Trash collection services for residents living in Ashland, Hopewell and Petersburg will occur on the day following the normal collection day.

Trash customers in Colonial Heights use a different contractor, thus; trash collection services for these city residents will take place on Wed., Sept. 5, the normal collection day.

For more information, please contact the Recycling Hotline at 340-0900 or the Trash Collection Hotline at 425-0500.
